IN BRIEF

This elegant and spacious townhouse in Montmorillon offers a rare blend of charm, location, and versatility. With a fully functioning studio and a leased commercial unit already in place, it's primed for immediate income. Beyond that, there's exciting potential to transform it into a profitable long-term rental, a multi-generational residence, or even a boutique guesthouse.

Currently arranged as a 10-room home with three bedrooms, the property provides ample scope to create at least five. Whether you're seeking a generous family home or a flexible investment with income potential, this property delivers. The large garden overlooking the river adds another layer of appeal—offering space, serenity, and a true sense of French living.

A must-see opportunity in one of France's most picturesque towns.
