IN BRIEF

This lovely property has been carefully renovated by the current owners, using traditional methods, sympathetic to the age of the property. The ground floor offers spacious accommodation, consisting of a fitted kitchen/dining room with a woodfired cooking range, which heats the radiators throughout the house. On the opposite side of the entrance hall can be found the cosy sitting room with wood burner. Upstairs are 2 double bedrooms and a further bedroom, which would be perfect as a child's bedroom or a study. A converted attic space above completes the main accommodation. However, there are several useful outbuildings, some of which are adjacent to the house, whilst some are on the opposite side of the lane where the land is situated. This area would be ideal for growing fruit and vegetables - great for those wishing to be...
