DESCRIPTION

Discreetly tucked away at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac in a sought-after residential area of Bergerac, this elegant 1820s stone home has been thoughtfully restored to offer both charm and comfort in equal measure. Just a short stroll from the town centre and the banks of the Dordogne, it's a peaceful haven with everything close at hand.

The main house spans approx. 193m² and welcomes you with warm, light-filled living spaces. On the ground floor, you'll find a generous entrance hall, a fully fitted kitchen, a lounge, bar area, office, veranda, a ground-floor bedroom, a shower room and WC. Upstairs offers two further bedrooms, a second office (that could serve as a further bedroom), another shower room and separate WC.

The recently installed aluminium veranda is a real highlight — perfect for enjoying the garden in every season. Heating is via town gas with beautiful cast iron radiators throughout.

Outdoors, the landscaped 2899m² garden features a swimming pool (completely redone in 2023 with electric cover), a well, and a number of outbuildings that add both character and flexibility. Two charming stone "chais" serve as storage and a summer kitchen, while a detached guest house provides a private living area with its own kitchen, bedroom, shower, and WC — ideal for guests, family, or even rental income.

Further benefits include a wine cellar, attic space, garage, and excellent access to Bergerac's town shuttle, which stops just a few minutes away.

This is a rare opportunity to own a slice...
