NOTES

DESCRIPTION

This well-built, spacious home offers strong investment appeal. Constructed in a traditional style, it features oil-fired central heating, an integral garage, double-glazed windows, and radiators in every room. With some updates—particularly to the ground-floor bathroom, kitchen, and heating system—you can significantly improve the property's energy rating and increase its value.

The layout and location make it highly versatile: ideal as a permanent residence, a lock-up-and-leave vacation home, or a rental property.

Set in a quiet, elevated position with no immediate neighbors, the house enjoys wide open views across the valley to the Pyrenees. Yet it's just 2 minutes from Trie-sur-Baïse, a lively village with shops, restaurants, schools, healthcare, and all essential services.

A rare combination of space, privacy, and potential—at a very attractive price. Contact us today to schedule your viewing.
