DESCRIPTION

On the ground floor, there are two rooms of approximately 23 m² and 12.5 m². One of these rooms features two large display windows facing the square, offering great visibility – ideal for a small shop, gallery or creative workspace. A beautiful wooden staircase adds character and leads to the upper floor.

The first floor consists of two bedrooms, including one with French doors that open onto a small balcony at the front of the house. From here, you overlook the surrounding rooftops and get a sense of the peaceful village atmosphere.

Above, the attic space of around 22.5 m² is filled with natural light thanks to roof windows and offers excellent potential for conversion into additional living space, an office,...

The basement of 32.5 m² is divided into several sections, perfect for storage or a wine cellar.

The roof has been recently replaced and is in excellent condition, which is a major plus for a renovation project like this.

While the house requires full interior renovation (including flooring and utilities), its location, structure, and character make it a rare find. A unique opportunity to create something special in one of the most charming corners of the Puy-de-Dôme.

Only 3km from Saint-Eloy les Mines, 20 km from Montluçon, 55 km from Clermont-Ferrand.
