DESCRIPTION

This pretty french house has a unique style and quirkiness that although needs some updating should be seen to be appreciated. When you enter the home from the front entrance door you step down into the lounge area with a log burning stove framed by a 16th century inglenook fireplace. The middle section of this floor provides the dining area leading to the open fitted kitchen with doors to rear terrace. The dining area also gives access to the ground floor shower room with wc, Japanese style bath and shower. The staircase from the dining area leads you to the first floor galleried landing accessing Bedroom 1 (7m x 4.75m) dual aspect windows overlook open farmland to the rear. Bed 2 (4.2m x 4.7m) overlooks the rear and has shared access to a shower room also accessible from the landing. Bedroom 3 (4m x 2.9m) overlooks the front aspect of the property. Stairs from the galleried landing lead you to a second floor bedroom (4.9m x 3m of usable floor space) into the eaves once again overlooking the rear into open farmland.

The outside and to the front has a covered area for storage or possibly a carport. to the side and rear there is ample parking on the grass and access to the rear of the property.
