NOTES

DESCRIPTION

We left the main road and took the access path. It was majestic, clinging tightly to the hillside, and as soon as we approached it, what a marvel words could express! We're greeted by sumptuous meadows that smell of freshly cut hay, clumps of flamboyant hydrangeas, natural stone and granite all around!

As far as the eye can see, an imposing landscape sublimates the property, forest massifs, lush green meadows, and on a clear day, the Pyrenees range in the distance. The setting is set!

This old farmhouse has been remarkably renovated, with absolutely everything ready to go!

Let's start with the main house, a sublime 2-storey farmhouse. A massive, well-sheltered entrance door welcomes us, opening onto a cloakroom and storeroom with plenty of storage space to let the adjoining kitchen breathe. The kitchen is functional, superbly equipped and wonderfully bright, just the way we like it! It offers an incredible view of the terrace before the swimming pool and parkland, which is so beautiful! The kitchen adjoins the large living room, comprising dining room and sitting room, where wood and slate blend perfectly. The large south-facing French windows open onto the terrace and grounds, providing an incredible amount of light. A veranda, a real work of art in which light reigns supreme, is a jewel in its own right!

Back in the living room, we return to the first floor and its sleeping area. One wing houses a beautiful master bedroom, study and bathroom, while...
