IN BRIEF

Situated in Finistère in Brittany near Morlaix, this beautiful granite house has been carefully renovated and needs no further work. Set in very attractive building land, it has 5 rooms, including 4 bedrooms (2 on the ground floor), a bright lounge/living room with wood burner, an open-plan fitted kitchen, 2 shower rooms, 2 toilets, a utility room, an attic and a garage/workshop in the basement. The rustic slate roof was redone a few years ago and the external rendering dates from 2021. The individual drainage system is compliant. The double-glazed windows (PVC and aluminium) are fitted with solar shutters. The pellet-fired boiler with 4-tonne silo is new. The large, wooded garden is fully enclosed with an electric gate.

DESCRIPTION

The building plot offers numerous possibilities (extension, secondary construction, plot division or landscaping), in a peaceful setting with relatively distant neighbours and easy access to nearby towns such as Morlaix, Lannion and Brest. It is located in a welcoming village with good transport links. It is immediately habitable and very well maintained. A house with Breton charm, ready to seduce discerning buyers.
