IN BRIEF

This well-maintained and well laid out modern property would make a perfect holiday home or family residence. Located on a quiet road only a few hundred metres from the centre of the village, day to day amenities are within easy walking distance. Further afield but still with easy reach, retail parks, bars, restaurants and public services are all available in Parthenay and Niort - 20 and 30 minutes away respectively.

The trip to Poitiers with it's international airport, TGV rail links and tourist attractions takes about an hour whilst La Rochelle and the beaches of the Atlantic coast are about 90 minutes away.

All living space is currently on the ground floor but the lower level also benefits from natural light and could be partly converted to create some additional accommodation.
