IN BRIEF

The charm begins as you enter the courtyard of this delightful stone property. Situated in a quiet village, the house has wonderful views over rolling countryside and beautiful open skies. It is set in 1.6 hectares (4 acres), a quarter of which is an enclosed formal garden with many mature trees, giving shady spots no matter what time of day it may be. There is a large swimming pool at the rear of the house, overlooking the valley of the river Pude. Its two large reception areas and delightful mezzanine give the opportunity for social gatherings or private contemplation. This space, together with its kitchen, dining room, seven bedrooms and four bathrooms provides the optimum space for a family or a family with guests. In addition, a large games room/gym, buanderie and verandah make this property...
