DESCRIPTION

This property is accessed via a gated entrance with parking for several cars. The main house is a very well proportioned Maison de Maitre, with a detached barn in the courtyard setting. There are additional outbuildings for storage and/or livestock. The house has a lovely entrance hall which is also used as a dining hall. The kitchen has space for petit dejeuner also. Across the hallway is the salon, light and airy with window and french doors out to the well stocked garden and wild flower patch. There is also a large room currently used as an office which could easily make a formal dining room or 5th bedroom. There is also a storage area for all the additional kitchen requirements, washing machine etc and a full shower room recently converted. The lovely original staircase leads to the first floor with 4 very good sized double bedrooms, any of which could provide ensuite facilities if required. There is also a workroom on this floor which would make an ample family bathroom.

This property has been in the same family for generations, has been loving looked after and is a rare find on the market today. A country setting, with easy access to all modern day amenities including health care, banks, supermarkets and restaurants. Not to mention the attractions of the Dronne valley and Ribérac on your doorstep.
