IN BRIEF

Nestled in a lush and protected setting, just a short walk from the Dordogne River and 12,4 km from local shops, this stunning stone property, facing due south and completely secluded, will charm you with its peaceful atmosphere, character, and highly sought-after location.

Built in 1994 by the Compagnons du Tour de France, the home features a vast 65 m² living room with a traditional cantou fireplace, blending the warm character of traditional architecture with top-quality materials — carefully selected antique terracotta tiles, exposed oak beams and traditional framework, hand-cut stone, and a large open hearth.

Set on over 2 ha of woodland, the property offers a true haven of peace, without being isolated. The south-facing pool is completely private and blends perfectly into the natural surroundings.
