NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Through a large gated entrance, the property opens to a driveway down the side of the house to the rear garden and access to the garages and workshops under the property.

The front door is up some stairs and enters into a magnificent L-shaped hallway with oak staircase to the upper floor and with original tiled floor and access to all ground floor rooms.

The equipped kitchen leads to the covered part of the terrace at the rear. There is also an external staircase from the kitchen down into the garden at the side.

The large dining room with double doors to the outside terrace overlooking the rear gardens leads to the large period lounge with a feature fireplace. There is a large bathroom and downstairs bedroom, separate WC and laundry room, staircase to the lower floor with garages, workshops and boiler room.

On the first floor there are 6 further bedrooms the smallest of which is used as an office, a further bathroom with WC and loft hatch access. Many of the bedrooms also have wash hand basins.

The lower ground has full depth garage for multiple vehicles, storerooms, a boiler room for the mains fired gas central heating boiler and useful potting shed area glazed to the rear.

The good sized gardens for a town property have lovely mature and specimen trees and shrubs. There is a well/water source at the rear of the land and a shed.
