IN BRIEF

In the protected forest of Bagnols-en-Forêt, this rare 1,5-hectare estate (up to 5 ac. available+ponds) is a haven for nature lovers, artists, and those seeking peace and authenticity. Built in 2003, the 188 m² villa blends elegance with artisanal charm: hand-patinated tiles, bespoke ceramics by a renowned local artist, antique-style doors, and a traditional stone pizza oven. The ground floor offers a bright double living room, a separate kitchen, and two bedrooms, including a master suite with dressing and en-suite bathroom. Upstairs, a self-contained apartment with bedroom, lounge, kitchen, attic, and solarium offers total independence. The fenced land is ideal for horses and features a spring-fed natural pool, a fountain, and an abundant water source delivering 3,000 L/day. Additional features include a double garage, a cold room, a reinforced henhouse (100 m²), oil tanks, and quality drainage. A...

DESCRIPTION

A rare estate, where nature, art, and light come together...

Just minutes from the charming Provençal village of Bagnols-en-Forêt, this exceptional 1,5 hectare property (up to 5 ac. available+ponds+natural pool) is a private sanctuary of beauty and peace, where the whisper of spring water blends with the stillness of the forest. At its heart lies a 188 m² artist's villa, built in 2003 with noble materials, refined finishes, and deep respect for its surroundings.

Hand-patinated tiles, handcrafted doors, signature ceramic pieces by a renowned local artist, and a traditional stone pizza oven—every detail tells a story. Here, water is abundance: a fountain and over 3,000 litres of pure spring water flowing daily, year-round. The partially fenced land is perfectly suited for horses, offering a serene setting for equestrian life, artistic retreat, or soulful living.

The ground floor opens to generous living spaces: a sunlit double lounge, separate kitchen, and two bedrooms—including a master suite with en-suite bath and walk-in closet. Upstairs, an independent apartment with solarium provides a private haven for guests. A wine cellar with cold room, a double garage, and quality technical features (drainage, septic tank, oil tanks, irrigation systems) complete this rare and timeless offering.

A discreet haven between forest and sky, just 30 minutes from the sea—yet in a world of its own.
