DESCRIPTION

This stone house for sale in Dordogne, France, is situated in the peaceful village of Eygurande-et-Gardedeuil (24700) — a sought-after rural location with a restaurant, bakery, primary school, and a weekly market offering local organic produce. It's just 9 km from Montpon-Ménestérol, where you'll find a train station, motorway access, schools, medical facilities, sports centres, and shops.

The 135 m² property features a 24 m² fitted kitchen, 35 m² living room with open fireplace, a shower room, WC, utility room, and a garage with potential for conversion.

Upstairs offers 3 bedrooms and a study, perfect for working from home or long-term tenants.

The south-facing garden of 1,094 m² is surrounded by mature trees and offers a peaceful outdoor space which is not overlooked.

The septic tank is not up to current regulations. The property is situated on a village road with regular passing traffic, offering direct access to Montpon and regional transport.

Bonus investment option: a 1,422 m² adjoining building plot with CU (planning permission) available for €29,000 FAI — ideal for building a gîte or future development.

Distances:

9 km (10 min) to Montpon-Ménestérol (train to Bordeaux)

80 km (1h) to Bordeaux city/airport

50 km (50 min) to Bergerac and airport

Perfect as a permanent home, holiday house, or long-term rental investment.
