IN BRIEF

Tucked away in a quiet village just minutes from lively Eymet, this beautifully restored stone townhouse blends French charm with modern ease. Recently renovated by a respected local architect, it offers light-filled living spaces, a sleek kitchen, and thoughtful details throughout. The dual-aspect living room opens onto both a walled garden and a sunny rear terrace, perfect for morning coffee or evening wine. Upstairs, two ensuite bedrooms each enjoy direct access to a generous south-facing balcony, ideal for soaking up the Dordogne sun. Practical touches include a fenced driveway, discreet storage, and efficient double glazing. Just 20 minutes from Bergerac Airport, this is an ideal lock-up-and-leave retreat or stylish permanent home. With bustling markets, restaurants, and year-round events nearby, you can savour the best of village life with all modern comforts close at hand. Early viewing recommended.
