IN BRIEF

Set within lush greenery and boasting a large, one-hectare park, this spacious 355 m² property comprises a main residence and a guest house.

Offering a peaceful living environment, it is ideal for history lovers, boasting a stone staircase and monumental fireplaces.

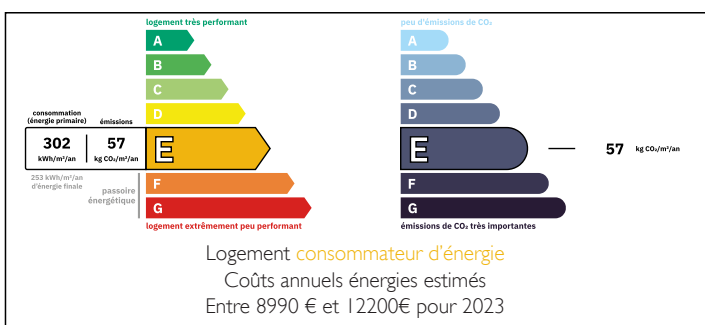

There are also several outbuildings, including a workshop, a barn and a building that could be converted into an art studio or living space.

The south-east aspect and large windows provide beautiful natural light, accentuating the sense of space.

The property is accessed via a private path, and the surrounding buildings and vegetation offer privacy.

While it requires some updating to realise its full potential, the property is in good structural condition and represents a great opportunity for those who appreciate the charm of old stone buildings and mature trees. Pet owners may also be tempted
