DESCRIPTION

Entrance to the property by large gates into a courtyard laid out as a formal French knot garden surrounded by buildings in a U shape.

To the right, there is a barn converted into a multi-purpose space (50m²) with WC.

In the continuity of this wing there is a garage where the boiler and pellets are housed, above that an attic suitable for further development. Continuing along this wing are two B&B suites of 35m² and 47m², each have their own bathroom. Beyond these is a laundry storage room (7m²), and a further multi-purpose space currently used as a music room, measuring 35m².

To the left of the entrance is a wing given entirely to accommodation : two cottages or gîtes, (60m² and 83m²) each with their own kitchens and bathrooms, each with one bedroom and one sofa bed. One is the old hunting lodge of the Manor and has a large reception space.

There are also two bed and breakfast suites in this wing. One is a classic double with ensuite (20m²). The other is a family suite combining the classic double bedroom with ornate fireplace, two single bedrooms, and a bathroom (65m²).

The Manor House offers a variety of potentiel uses whether kept as a family home or opened up to further accommodation.

On the ground floor there is a large and welcoming entrance hall open to the stairwell (15m²). To the right is a formal sitting room of about 40m² with views to both gardens, front and...
