DESCRIPTION

Nestled in the charming village of Roujan, just 15 minutes from the historic market town of Pézenas, this charming three-storey home combines authentic period character with light-filled living spaces and a rare dual-aspect position.

Throughout the property, you'll find beautiful original features — including decorative floor tiles, moulded ceilings, fireplaces, and carved detailing — all contributing to its timeless appeal.

Upon entering the ground floor, you're greeted by an impressive wide staircase, a striking feature that immediately sets the tone for the rest of the home. The spacious entrance hall provides access to a large garage with electric doors, practical storage caves, and the rear terrace.

On the first floor, a bright hallway leads to four versatile rooms and a sunny terrace. To the left, a generous living room with full-length windows fills with natural light, while a bedroom or study offers flexible space for work or guests, if desired you could join the two rooms. The dining room, complete with built-in storage, flows seamlessly into the fitted kitchen, both opening directly onto the terrace, an ideal spot for outdoor dining and entertaining. A family bathroom with bath, sink, and WC completes this level.

The top floor features four spacious bedrooms, each with its own charm and character. One includes a small sink area, another a utility area with attic access. The remaining bedrooms offer built-in storage niches, and there is a separate shower room with WC.

Outside, the 30m² first-floor terrace provides a wonderful setting for relaxation and...
