Caunes-Minervois is a lively village of about 1,800 inhabitants, set only half an hour from the UNESCO World Heritage cité of Carcassonne and the Canal du Midi. Daily life here is well catered for, with a grocery shop, bakery, butcher, pharmacy, florist, hair salons, doctors, an ATM, and a bustling weekly market. The village has a strong cultural identity, famous for its art galleries, ceramic workshops, frequent exhibitions, and a much-loved annual music festival.

Travel links are highly convenient: Carcassonne airport can be reached in 30 minutes, Béziers in an hour, and Toulouse in around 90 minutes. High-speed TGV services from Narbonne and Carcassonne connect easily to major French cities, while Barcelona is just a three-hour drive. The Mediterranean coast is within 45 minutes, and the Pyrenees are less than an hour and a half away. Outdoor enthusiasts will also appreciate the Montagne Noire rising just behind the village, offering endless trails for walking, cycling, and exploring nature.
