IN BRIEF

A secluded rural retreat with extraordinary views, private pool, accommodation, guest development potential.

Located in the south of the Charente, this peaceful property is part of the commune of Pillac, yet enjoys total tranquillity with no immediate neighbours. The main house offers panoramic views across the surrounding countryside, a south-east facing terrace, a private swimming pool, and a detached guest house — all with potential to further develop if desired.

Just 10 minutes from both Saint-Séverin and Montmoreau, offering supermarkets, a bakery, restaurants, and other local services. Montmoreau has a TER railway station (with services to Bordeaux and Angoulême), while the vibrant town of Ribérac (20 minutes) offers one of the region's best year-round weekly markets.
