NOTES

DESCRIPTION

The property is accessed through modern electric double gates or a single gate which along with the hedging give privacy to the front of the house.

The front door leads to an elegant hallway with tiled floor and an impressive staircase of polished wood with iron-work railings.

Glass doors from the hallway lead to the main living area of 80 square metres which has a window to the front garden and a magnificent huge feature window that looks over the trees to the rear of the property.

This open plan living space includes, dining and office space but can be configured to a variety of uses.

At the rear of main living area, the enclosed balcony with electric sun shade is 12 metres long and 2.75 metres wide. There are glass doors to the living area, the dining area and the bedroom area for all year round living, dining and entertaining.

Double doors lead to the larger kitchen/dining area with a small back kitchen. A hallway from here leads to the principal bedroom which has doors opening out to the veranda and a bathroom with access from the bedroom and from the main entrance hall.

From this inner hallway a door leads downstairs to the garage. Accessed from the driveway via electric doors there is ample space for two cars at the front of the garage and more at the rear. There is a useful cave at the bottom of the steps from the house. At the...
