DESCRIPTION

This stone property was rebuilt on the site of an old moulin, giving it both history and character.

A side driveway, secured by sliding gates, leads to the first garage,(22.23m²), suitable for one car. Built around 50 years ago, the house offers plenty of charm and comfort, with the added benefit of gas central heating and double-glazed windows and doors throughout.

The entrance hallway features tiled floors and a beautifully crafted spiral wooden staircase. On this level, you'll find two double bedrooms, (13.60,12.73m²), each with its own vanity unit, along with a shower room, a separate WC, and a dressing/laundry room. A corridor leads further to a workshop,(15.84m²), and a second garage,(18.86m²).

Upstairs, the first floor hosts the fitted kitchen,(7.89m²), which opens directly onto the garden and lake. The spacious dining room,(22.89m²), with its stone fireplace and wood-burning stove, flows into a generous living room,(28.68m²), with parquet flooring, a beamed ceiling, and French doors leading once again out to the lake. Also on this floor is the third double bedroom, (13.13m²),along with a bathroom ,(12.72m²), and a separate WC.

Throughout, the property has a warm and welcoming atmosphere, enhanced by its sense of space, natural light, and the many double doors opening out to the lake.

The property is set on 5,000 m² of beautifully landscaped land, mostly filled with mature trees and shrubs, creating a serene and private setting around the lake. The lake itself covers approximately 2,800 m², providing a stunning focal point and a tranquil retreat.
