IN BRIEF

Hidden from view, 200 metres from a quiet road, this stone property is a haven of peace, cradled by the silence of the countryside and the murmurings of the nearby lake. With no immediate neighbours, yet just a few minutes from a lively village with a school, shops and a friendly restaurant, it offers a rare balance between seclusion and accessibility. The main house charms with its generous proportions and warm atmosphere. An L-shaped open-plan kitchen extends into a welcoming dining room, then into a light-filled living room with a cathedral ceiling rising to an airy mezzanine. On the ground floor, a double bedroom with en-suite bathroom offers immediate comfort, complemented by a separate shower room. Upstairs, two further double bedrooms each have their own shower room, ideal for entertaining family and friends.

DESCRIPTION

The detached guest house is an intimate and functional space, perfect for welcoming loved ones or generating rental income. It includes a comfortable bedroom and can be furnished according to your preferences.

Outside, the garden surrounds the house and swimming pool, offering unobstructed views of the surrounding countryside. The heated, secure 10 x 5 metre swimming pool is perfect for relaxing in all seasons. Two barns, one measuring 250 m² and the other 150 m², complete the property and offer remarkable potential for artistic, craft or renovation projects.

The land, largely cultivated by a local farmer, requires minimal maintenance while preserving the rural authenticity of the location. The property is also bordered by a lake, with fishing rights extended to the owners, adding a bucolic touch to this already enchanting setting.

Located 11 km from Cancon, 17 km from Miramont-de-Guyenne and 21 km from the charming town of Eymet, this residence is only 39 km from Bergerac Airport, making it easy to travel and welcome visitors.
