DESCRIPTION

Step inside and discover a home designed for comfortable living. To your right, a lovely kitchen area offers plenty of space for your dining table, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere.

On your left, you'll find the living room, and at the back, an additional room that is perfect for an office or a guest bedroom.

Upstairs, two bedrooms await, each with its own en-suite bathroom. Downstairs, the property features a spacious basement, offering ample storage or a blank canvas for your needs.

A straight path from the main entrance leads to a huge barn, which already have double glazing windows and doors and floor heating is already installed. The rest waits to be renovated and to be transformed your own imagination. From the barn, you can access the large garden, a private oasis just waiting to be enjoyed.

The whole property needs renovation, all windows from the house is single glazed and outdated, the middle part of the roof requires replacement.
