IN BRIEF

In the heart of Collias, a charming Provençal village located between Uzès and the Pont du Gard, this 293 m² village house offers spacious volumes and an ideal layout for a family home or a secondary residence with seasonal rental potential. Spread over several levels, the property includes a large living room with fitted kitchen, six bedrooms, several shower rooms and additional versatile spaces (office, small lounge, storage areas). Beautiful vaulted cellars, a barn and various outbuildings complete the ensemble. Outdoors, a swimming pool with terrace allows you to fully enjoy the Provençal lifestyle. The renovation preserves the charm of the old stone building while incorporating modern comfort.
