IN BRIEF

Situated on the edge of the peaceful village near Aignan in the heart of Gers, this detached 3-bedroom house built in 2007 combines modern energy efficiency with traditional charm. Fully double glazed and insulated, the property features solar panels, geothermal heating, and reversible air conditioning for comfort. On the ground floor is a spacious bedroom with ensuite bathroom; upstairs are two further good-size bedrooms, a shower room, and a store room – ideal for family living. Attached is a double garage, and set beside the house is a large hangar capable of housing a motorhome and electricity points.

The grounds are largely enclosed and laid mainly to lawn, with a sweeping gravel driveway providing ample parking. You'll find an orchard, vegetable patch, and terraces at both front and rear to enjoy far-reaching views over the beautiful Gers countryside. There's...
