DESCRIPTION

Formerly the village shop, the home showcases a distinctive tower feature with its own private terrace balcony. The property blends original character – including exposed natural wood features – with modern, in-keeping updates for comfortable living.

At the heart of the home is an inviting open-plan living area with a chimney and wood-burning stove, offering a warm, sociable space with good flow throughout. The home benefits from double-glazed windows and doors, oil-fired central heating with old school style radiators, and is connected to mains drainage. The attic room on the first floor offers further potential and has the most amazing beam features!

To the left of the entrance hall, you'll find the room that was once the village shop. This space fits in well with the main house and offers excellent potential for further development. An additional room is attached to this space, providing further options for a home office, or creative studio.

Below the living area is a basement housing a cellar, boiler room, and a versatile room that would be ideal as a summer kitchen or utility area.
