IN BRIEF

A spacious four-bedroom family home built in 1956, sits in the lively town of Bellac, not far from cafes, restaurants, a supermarket, and the train station.

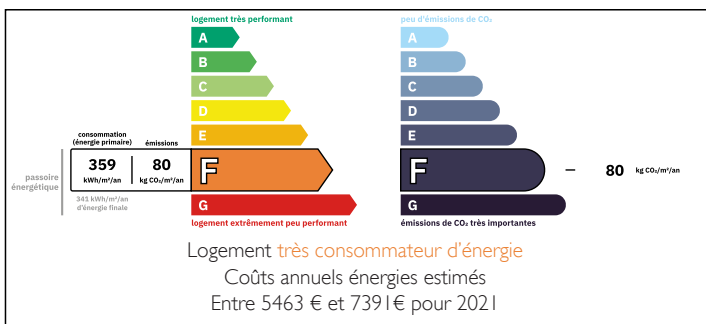

The property features expansive living areas and a private garden, with a kitchen perfectly positioned to serve the terrace and its panoramic country views or the rear garden's charming patio, BBQ and pool area.

The main reception forms a welcoming L-shape, separating a formal dining area, casual lounge, and a TV nook, all anchored by a cozy wood stove. Bi-fold doors open to the terrace for effortless indoor-outdoor entertaining.

Upstairs host four bright bedrooms, a second shower room, and a separate bathroom, with potential to create an ensuite. Two large garages, a laundry, and central heating complete the essentials.
