IN BRIEF

Discover this charming historic village property dating from the 13th to 15th century, ideally located in the heart of Montcuq's historic centre. Offering two internally connected yet independent units, the home provides exceptional flexibility for family living, guests, or rental potential.

Tastefully restored with quality materials — including a new roof, updated electrics and plumbing, double glazing, and pellet stove heating — this character home blends modern comfort with authentic charm. The main house features a spacious living/dining room, equipped kitchen, three bedrooms, and a bathroom, while the gîte has a kitchen/living area, one bedroom and a bathroom. An independent building opposite the house includes a covered terrace and two cellars, overlooking a small garden of approx. 80 m².

Set in a quiet, pedestrian street with all amenities nearby, this is a rare opportunity to own a piece of...
