DESCRIPTION

Oil-fired central heating (with the boiler in the cellar) and two wood-burning stoves ensure optimal comfort all year round.

Additional information

On the ground floor, a 29 m² room with a shopfront currently provides an additional income of €200/month through a 6-month short-term lease, offering many possibilities for future use or conversion according to the new owner's needs.

Each of the guest rooms on the first floor has its own bathroom with a WC, and one offers access to a balcony. They are rented out on a short- and medium-term basis all year round, taking advantage of the vibrant atmosphere of Montolieu, the famous Village of Books and Arts. The village attracts many visitors with its bookshops, artists' studios, and museums, including the Cérès Franco Museum of Outsider Art, whose reopening in April 2026 is expected to draw even more visitors.

The loft apartment on the top floor was created in 2018. Of about 150 m², it impresses with its remarkable volume and 75 m² open living space, heated by a wood-burning stove and supplemented by radiators. The 4.5 m high ceilings enhance the sense of space, while a mezzanine overlooking the living area adds a modern touch and can serve as an office or additional sleeping area.

The open view over gardens and the entrance to the village creates a peaceful atmosphere. The terrace offers a lovely spot for outdoor dining while sheltered from the sun. Two spacious bedrooms enjoy a superb view of the surrounding nature, one...
