DESCRIPTION

Property Location and Lifestyle:

Cimiez stands as one of Nice's most elegant and historically rich neighborhoods, perched on hillsides that offer commanding views of the city and coastline below. This refined residential district combines Belle Époque grandeur with modern tranquility, home to the renowned Matisse Museum, Roman ruins, and the lush Cimiez Gardens. The neighborhood's elevated position provides a peaceful retreat while maintaining excellent connectivity to central Nice and other essential amenities.

The area boasts charming local markets, quality restaurants, and convenient shopping options, while remaining just minutes from the vibrant city center and the famous Promenade des Anglais. With reliable public transportation links and easy access to Nice's cultural attractions, Cimiez offers the rare combination of residential serenity and urban accessibility that defines sophisticated Riviera living.

Connectivity:

Several regular bus lines service the Cimiez area, with stops only a few minutes away by foot. For drivers, the Voie Rapide urban motorway enables rapid travel throughout the city, connecting directly to the A8 freeway, opening up the entire French Riviera from Monaco to Cannes. Most notably, Nice Côte d'Azur Airport - one of France's busiest international hubs with worldwide connections - is just 15 minutes away, making this an ideal pied-à-terre for frequent travelers or international buyers.
