IN BRIEF

Nestled in the hills, surrounded by plum orchards and sunflower fields, on a rural road just outside the I3th-century village, lies the Maison de Maître, a simple yet impressive stone residence. The charming barns and dovecote have been carefully converted into luxury holiday accommodation.

Set in peaceful, green surroundings, this exceptional property offers a rare combination of buildings, ideal for a large family, a hospitality project or an events business.

About an hour and a half from Bordeaux and Toulouse, the Lot-et-Garonne region, which takes its name from the two main rivers that flow through it, is nicknamed the 'French Tuscany' and is perfect for discovering the true French way of life with its many weekly markets, terrace cafés and restaurants, wine tastings, antique fairs, river boat trips .
