DESCRIPTION

This charming 2-bedroom apartment is located in a very characteristic building within a small copropriété, just a stone's throw from the centre of Limoux. Perfectly positioned close to shops, restaurants, and all local conveniences, it offers an appealing blend of authenticity and comfort.

Spanning approximately 100 m², the apartment features high ceilings and large windows, which flood the living spaces with natural light and enhance the sense of volume and elegance throughout. The layout includes two bedrooms and one reception room, offering generous proportions and excellent potential. While the property would benefit from some renovation to bring it fully up to modern standards, its architectural charm provides a superb foundation for creating a truly beautiful home.

Limoux is a vibrant and picturesque town, widely celebrated for its cultural heritage—most notably the traditional Banquet, a central element of the centuries-old Carnaval de Limoux. This unique festival, one of the longest-running carnivals in the world, animates the town with masked processions, music, dancing, and lively gatherings across several months each year. Living here means enjoying a rich cultural atmosphere in one of the most attractive towns of the Aude region.
