DESCRIPTION

Elegant 200 m² stone farmhouse – charm, light, and serenity in the heart of the Redon region
In a preserved natural setting, hidden from view, this superb local stone farmhouse, a former cider house, embodies the perfect blend of authenticity and contemporary elegance.

Nestled in the heart of the Redon region, with its ancient charm, it offers approximately 200 m² of living space, enhanced by quality materials and careful renovation.

A home with a strong character

The charm is evident from the entrance: exposed stone, massive beams, and generous volumes create a bright interior that is both warm and refined.

The main living area, approximately 50 m², bathed in light, offers a friendly and soothing atmosphere. It opens onto a bright veranda inviting you to dream, facing the garden and extending into a stone fireplace and a wood-burning stove, creating a very comfortable reception area.

The functional and elegant open kitchen is complemented by a utility room/laundry room.

Continuing on, a separate space with unique charm. An artist's studio with a fireplace and a cellar offer exceptional development potential, ideal for a gîte, art gallery, craft activity, or wellness or meditation space.

Upper Floor & Private Spaces

An elegant mezzanine overlooks the living room and reveals a beautiful reading or study space, conducive to tranquility and reflection.

It also houses three spacious bedrooms, including a master suite with a dressing room and private bathroom.

A second independent bathroom, a separate toilet, and a powder room with nautical-style flooring complete this upper floor with refinement.
