DESCRIPTION

Built at the beginning of the 19th century, this is a lovely stone house in a beautiful spot with around 170m² living space, comprising entrance hall around 13m², lounge around 20m² with fireplace and original wooden floors, large dining room 21m² with fireplace & wood burner, fitted kitchen 13m², storage area, utility room with access to attic area, wine cellar, wc.

Upstairs 3 bedrooms (21, 11, 28m²) one of which has a shower & sink area, separate shower room, wc. Stairs to attic. Separate bedroom/office around 19m². Attached garage almost 15m², accessible from the house.

Original fireplaces, flooring, beautiful doors.

Gas central heating, double glazing. Perfectly habitable, would benefit from some updating (septic tank does not conform).

Pretty courtyard to rear of the house plus parking area to the front and separate plot of land on the banks of the estuary, perfect for admiring the stunning view over the water and the magnificent sunsets.

The Corniche de la Gironde is a perfect location for walks, cycling & picnics. The house is between the lovely villages of Gauriac & Plassac and a short drive from all of the amenities of Blaye. Ideal main or holiday home in a relaxing spot.
