NOTES

DESCRIPTION

This charming Périgourdine-style residence offers generous and wonderfully adaptable living space across two floors.

A light-filled entrance hall leads to an expansive open-plan sitting and dining room, where tiled floors, a wood-burning stove and French doors create an inviting setting for both relaxed evenings and effortless entertaining. The modern, well-appointed kitchen also opens onto the front terrace and benefits from a practical adjoining pantry.

Three versatile ground-floor rooms, currently arranged as bedrooms, along with a family bathroom and separate WC, provide excellent flexibility for single-level living, guest accommodation, study or a an additional reception room.

Upstairs, four further bedrooms are complemented by a family bathroom and three attic rooms, offering ample storage or potential for future development.

Outdoors, a covered terrace along the width of the house overlooks a mature rear garden. The gated front garden is attractively paved, offering both seating areas and off-road parking.

Across the lane, a substantial two-storey outbuilding with its own garden presents a rare opportunity for conversion into guest accommodation, a studio or workspace, subject to planning consent.

Connected to mains drainage and benefiting from oil-fired central heating, the property is vacant and in good overall condition—ready to be shaped into its next chapter.
