DESCRIPTION

The layout is as follows.

All on one level.

Entrance hall (4m²) with the main bedroom (20m²) to the side. Original oak beams, tiled floor and feature stone walls.

Through the hallway to the bathroom (6m²). Cast iron bath, original oak beams, top level cast iron toilet cistern - a room full of character.

Into the tiled lounge area (35m²) with a mezzanine (10m²) to one end. The lounge benefits from a large wood burner, feature windows, stone walls and original oak beams. The mezzanine area has a wrought iron front, from the local church.

Walk past the original oak door, into the dining room (17m²). Full height windows opening to the patio and rear garden, with two bedrooms (7.5m² each) leading off from this area.

There is an original wood feature that separates the dining room and kitchen (20m²). Oak in abundance in the kitchen area, with full height windows on the far end. Fully fitted wood units and a ceramic sink. The boiler room (3.5m²) which houses the boiler is off the kitchen, which leads to a shower room (5m²) complete with shower, washbasin and toilet.

Completing the picture is an enclosed private rear garden with a patio offering views over the surrounding countryside. There is a well at the side of the property and a large independent barn (132m²) with a mezzanine and partially tiled floor which also houses the oil tank. A new central heating boiler was installed in January 2019.
