DESCRIPTION

Discover this great business and investment opportunity in Moutiers, the Gateway to the Tarentaise and Vanoise.

The historic town perched alongside the banks of the river Isere and the confluence of the Doron and Isere, with its century old historic center, the cathedral and its cobblestones streets, has gained more and more economic importance over the last few years due to its strategic location and proximity to Europe's largest and busiest ski resorts.

Three Valleys with Courchevel, St Martin- Val Thorens and Meribel on one side, la Plagne -Les Arcs on the other side, and less than an hour to la Rosiere ,Tignes and Val d'Isere make Moutiers a true hub for any kind of commerce and services that cater to those tourism magnets.

The TGV high speed train stops at Moutiers as well as all the "Snow-Trains" bringing in skiers and tourists during the busy winter season. With the Olympic Winter Games 2030 approaching, we see already a increase in activity and interest, and many of the countless seasonal employees working up in the stations live and commute and shop and supply themselves in Moutiers rather than in the more expensive resorts they are working in.

The Grand Rue, Moutiers central axis and well developped pedestrian zone, is the prime location for any type of commercial activity.

Just a few steps away from the historical Cathedral and the old Monastery and the Central Market Plaza, at an intersection with...
