DESCRIPTION

Outside, the terraced garden is beautifully landscaped, filled with mature trees and colourful flowers. The heated swimming pool, completely private and not overlooked, is perfect for relaxing summer days. A well with water all year round and several outbuildings (which can be kept as they are or converted) complete the property.

This unique home would make a wonderful family residence, but also lends itself perfectly to a tourism or hospitality project (gîtes or guest rooms), or even a professional practice.

Some renovation work will allow you to reveal the full splendour of this rare and authentic historic home, steeped in charm and history.

A truly special property in an idyllic setting between Toulouse and Carcassonne.
