NOTES

DESCRIPTION

A house combining comfort, functionality and a pleasant living environment.

This charming and well-maintained property, built in the early 1990s, requires no renovation. Entry is via a veranda that leads directly into either the hallway or the kitchen. From the hallway, doors open into the kitchen or the spacious living and dining area, which features an open fireplace and two French doors that provide direct access to the back terrace and garden.

The entrance hall also gives access to a guest toilet and a corridor leading to three bedrooms, a bathroom with a separate shower, and an additional shower room with a WC. There is another versatile room that could serve as an office, dressing room, or small child's bedroom.

Stairs descend to the basement and one of the two garages, with the second garage situated adjacent to the first. The wrap-around garden is fully enclosed, with part previously used as a vegetable garden and orchard. The generous plot is also large enough to accommodate a swimming pool, should you wish to add one.
