DESCRIPTION

You enter directly into the living room (24m²), which leads up to a fully fitted and equipped kitchen (14m²).

A staircase rises to a small landing (1m²). To the left is a generous bedroom (23m²) with beautiful fireplace and doors opening onto a balcony. To the right of the landing is a shower room (8m²) with shower, washbasin and WC, along with a useful understairs cupboard (2m²).

Continuing to the second floor, another landing (5m²) leads to a second shower room (3.5m²) with shower, washbasin, WC and storage space (1.5m²), and to the second bedroom (16.5m²).

Although the property does not have a garden or courtyard, Richelieu's beautiful park is just a few minutes' walk away.

The historic, walled town of Richelieu offers all essential amenities, including pharmacies, a supermarket, cinema, banks, restaurants, bars, and a vibrant weekly Friday market. Throughout the year the town hosts brocantes, antique fairs, art exhibitions and bi-annual festivals, creating a lively and cultural atmosphere.

Ideally located for exploring the Loire Valley's châteaux and vineyards, the property also enjoys excellent transport links: TGV trains to Paris from Tours (just under an hour) and Châtelleraut (around 1 hour 20 minutes); low-cost flights to the UK from Tours and Poitiers airports (each approximately 45 minutes away); and easy access to the Caen–Ouistreham ferry port in around three hours.

Measurements are approximate and not contractual.
