DESCRIPTION

This beautiful home is located in the charming village of Rustrel, a village with around 750 inhabitants in the Luberon, Provence—a place where life is still truly enjoyable.

The bakery is closeby and is known for its excellent bread. The local grocery store offers a fine selection of cheeses and outstanding charcuterie. The village's terraces, brasseries, and restaurants under the shade of majestic plane trees create a warm and welcoming atmosphere. In summer, the weekly market brings the village to life, along with various events such as antique fairs and concerts.

You'll also find a post office, a nursery and primary school, a town hall, a bistro, an inn, a pizzeria, as well as potters and a few art galleries. Surrounded by nature, the village is set amid lavender fields, endless forests, and striking ochre cliffs. The nearby mountains offer breathtaking scenery with ever-changing colors.

The town of Apt, just 10 km away, offers a full range of shops, a high school, a middle school, a cinema, and restaurants. Every Saturday morning, its famous Provençal market fills the streets with vibrant colors and local flavors. Avignon's TGV station is about 1 hour 15 minutes by car, and Marseille airport is approximately 1 hour 30 minutes away.
