IN BRIEF

The property offers spectacular mountain views and the village centre is just a few minutes walk.

With year-round appeal, in the heart of the Giffre Valley, Samoëns is a charming alpine village steeped in history, dating back to the 12th century. Its traditional architecture gives it a unique character rarely found in modern ski resorts.

Arranged over three levels, the property features a well-planned layout ideal for a primary or secondary residence. The ground floor features an entrance with a WC and utility room, leading into an open-plan kitchen, dining, and living area with access to a south-east facing balcony.

Upstairs, there is a spacious principal bedroom with its own bathroom, WC, and another south-east facing balcony. The garden level includes multiple sleeping areas—2 bunk-bed rooms, a double

While best known for winter sports, Samoëns is a true year-round destination. From late spring to early autumn, the surrounding valley offers an abundance of outdoor adventures—hiking, paragliding, rafting, cycling, canyoning, and swimming in nearby lakes and pools—making it an ideal spot for families and nature lovers alike.

In winter, Samoëns provides direct access to France's fourth largest ski domain, the Grand Massif, which links together the resorts of Flaine, Les Carroz, Morillon and Sixt-Fer-à-Cheval. With 265 km of pistes, it's a paradise for skiers and snowboarders of all levels.

Thanks to its proximity to Geneva Airport—only about an hour's drive away—it has excellent accessibility whether you're looking for a permanent home or a holiday retreat.
