DESCRIPTION

Nestled among ancient olive groves above the Côte d'Azur, this exquisite estate combines timeless Provençal character with contemporary comfort. Offering breathtaking panoramic views stretching from the Bay of Cannes and the Lérins Islands to the Estérel Mountains and Lake Saint-Cassien, this is a property of rare beauty and authenticity.

Set within more than 25,000 sqm of terraced gardens planted with 450 olive trees, the bastide and its guest residences provide approximately 375 sqm of refined living space. The beautifully restored five-bedroom stone-built main house exudes charm and elegance, while the four-bedroom guest house and separate annex with a large office and recreation room ensure ample space for family and friends.

Outdoors, leisure and relaxation take centre stage. A magnificent heated swimming pool (14.5 m × 7 m) is framed by sun terraces and a shaded lounge area, while a private tennis court invites you to enjoy the Provençal sunshine in style.

The property also offers a double garage, an olive-harvesting building, two wells, and several additional outbuildings — as well as further development potential for those seeking to expand or personalise their Provençal retreat.

Perfectly located, the estate lies just a short walk from the picturesque village of Cabris, with its charming cafés, restaurants, and daily essentials. Cannes, Sophia Antipolis, and the coast are only 20 km away, and Nice Côte d'Azur Airport can be reached in under 45 minutes. Several renowned golf courses — and even alpine ski resorts — are within easy reach.
