IN BRIEF

Nestled on the heights of a charming village between Nîmes and Montpellier within 2km from Quissac with all commerce, this former 12th-century presbytery has been beautifully restored between 2000 and 2011 with great respect for its original materials and character. In the heart of the Gard region, surrounded by rolling vineyards and garigue landscapes typical of southern France. Its peaceful setting, proximity to two major cities, and authentic Provençal atmosphere make it an ideal location for a family home or a refined holiday retreat. Local amenities and services are nearby, while the Mediterranean coast, historic towns, and hiking trails are all within easy reach.
