NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Located in the lively and charming town of Sérignan, this wine grower's house offers a great base for a main home or holiday home.

On the ground floor you enter into a bright reception room; this leads to a hall where you will find a small laundry area with storage. From here you can also access the vast garage (50m²). To the rear of the garage you will find a storage area leading to a multi-use room; this room also benefits from an ensuite with shower, sink and WC.

Beautiful oak stairs take you to the first floor, leading into the bright and welcoming lounge with open-plan equipped kitchen. There is a modern pellet burner, and sliding doors take you onto the spacious terrace (25m²), an ideal space to entertain and relax.

To the front of this floor you will find two bedrooms, each with large windows and Juliette balconies; each room has air conditioning. A bathroom with separate bath and shower, and separate WC, complete this floor.

The second floor offers a versatile open-plan mezzanine (28m²); this could be used as an office, hobby space or snug.

The property attracts a B energy rating with double glazing, insulation, air conditioning and the efficient pellet burner.
