IN BRIEF

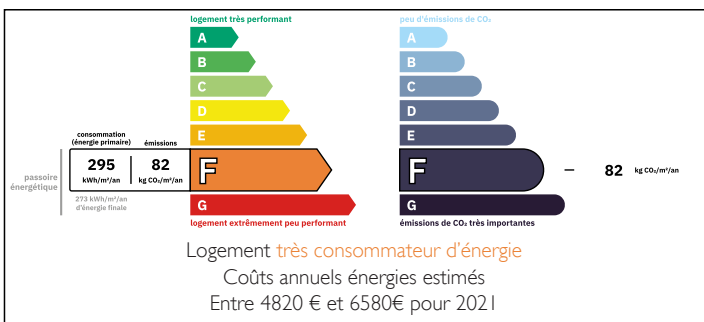

In central Seglien, just a few steps from the local bar/shop and village church - this substantial former village shop with three bedrooms and large attic above has an great potential for the future owner.

Work to predict would be to install double glazing and a heating system along with general refreshment throughout. Three entries on the ground floor lead into two rooms at the front of the property and a corridor along the side from front to back. A second room at the back with a lovely brick fireplace, A WC and boiler room with access to the back garden complete the ground floor.

Upstairs via the lovely solid wood staircase is a landing, three large bedrooms, a bathroom and a staircase up to a large attic that could be fitted out.

The garden contains a ruin that could be...
