DESCRIPTION

Located just 1.5 km from the centre of Puy-l'Évêque, this 4,145 m² buildable plot offers a practical opportunity to create a bespoke home in a well-positioned setting.

The land already benefits from existing foundations and running water on site, providing a useful starting point for a construction project. Its good orientation ensures plenty of natural light throughout the day.

The size of the plot allows flexibility in design, with space for a main residence, gardens and outdoor areas, subject to the necessary planning permissions.

Set close to local shops and amenities, the location offers a good balance between convenience and a countryside environment.

Provision will need to be made for electricity connection and the installation of a sanitation system, and any construction will be subject to the relevant planning permissions.
