IN BRIEF

Refurbished former Presbytery offering charm, space, and countryside views.

This large, light-filled village home features spacious living rooms and four bedrooms, ideal for family living and entertaining. The property benefits from a substantial basement, an adjoining barn, and a private garden of just under one acre, with lovely open views over the surrounding countryside to the rear.

Located in a welcoming village with a post office, restaurant, and baguette machine, the house is just 10 minutes from the fairytale tourist village of Jumilhac-le-Grand and 15 minutes from the bustling market town of Thiviers, offering full amenities and a mainline train station.
